THE GAFFER

SIMON WEAVER

Being back on home soil today, as a group we come into this afternoon's match against Crawley with a point to prove after our last home match against Newport.

Having been at this club for so long, I know exactly what a Harrogate Town team should be. However, our performance and application in that match fell well short of that.

There has been a lot of excitement around this club in recent months. The lads have put in some fantastic performances and registered some important results in doing so.

Naturally, that has left a high bar set for players crossing that white line every week. Of course, we don't expect to win every game but the manner of the last home defeat makes the result hard to take.

In those moments, it is important that we are open and honest with ourselves to ensure we come back stronger. As a group, we sat down and had a conversation about where we short collectively.

The next 11 games are probably the most important part of the season. At this stage, we have given ourselves reason to believe and look upward. However, we can't afford to have many more performances like that because we will be punished.

Last weekend against Swindon, we showed a real positive reaction. The quality of our play helped us to create a number of good chances but unfortunately we weren't able to put the game to bed.

You could see the players were fired up, they were keen to put right some of those wrongs but having played and defended so well, the goal from Charlie Austin felt like a little bit of a sucker punch with the timing of it.

Despite the positives, we have spoken to the players and made clear our expectations to show that same hunger and fire here today.

We haven't taken enough points from our matches at home so far this season. That is a big disappointment but with six home games left, we have six opportunities to give something back to our supporters.

This group have a real opportunity to write themselves into the history of this football club. Over the course of this season, our supporters have been fantastic travelling the length and breadth of the country to play their part in what has been an exciting time.

We face a Crawley side who are full of quality players. Both sides have principles of play and stick to them so I'm sure it will be a good game to watch. However, the aim is to start strongly and stop them from getting into a rhythm.

If we can do that, get on the front foot and create chances then we will hopefully give you something to cheer about come the final whistle.

Simon

THE SKIPPER

JOSH FALKINGHAM

After an extremely disappointing night in our last home match against Newport, we come into this match with Crawley with a burning desire to show a marked improvement on that performance.

Over the course of this season, we have set a high bar in terms of performance levels. We have gained a reputation for an attractive brand of football and against Newport we simply failed to meet those expectations. That makes the defeat all the harder to stomach.

With 11 games left this season, we took our time to reflect on what went wrong and what we need to do in order to get back to our true identity.

Looking at Saturday's trip to Swindon, I think we showed a really positive reaction. At this level, we play so many matches and often it can be about the team who bounces back the quickest.

In that game, we got on the ball well and stopped Swindon getting on the front foot to force us into mistakes. We moved through the thirds well and created a couple of really good chances.

We get a really good goal just after half-time and weather the immediate storm which comes. However, a moment of brilliance from someone of Charlie Austin's quality punishes us when we deserved all three points.

As we approach the 'business end of the season' we have been extremely honest with ourselves over how this season has gone. The away form this season has been fantastic but at home we have to improve between now and the end of the season.

Including today, we have six home games remaining in this campaign. That is six opportunities for us to give our supporters something back for their fantastic backing over the course of this campaign.

At this stage of the season, we are in a fantastic position to make this another campaign to remember. However, the belief we have is only possible if we carry on putting important results on the board.

We aren't re-inventing the wheel at this stage, it's about staying true to our principles and making sure we are fulfilling our collective responsibilities every time we cross that white line.

Crawley are another really good side and a team who like to get the ball down and play through the thirds. Having watched their coverage, I think today will be a really good contest but it will be another close one.

As always, we come here with confidence in our game plan. We want to get our flair players on the ball and in the positions to excite the supporters. If we can start strongly, be brave in possession then we have the quality to hurt any team at this level.

Hello and welcome to today's game, this week we celebrate international women's day. Ahead of International Women's Day, the English Football League (EFL) and EFL clubs will be celebrating female supporters in dedicated activity across England and Wales.

Over 2.9m female supporters attend EFL matches per season with an average of 64,000 female supporters per EFL matchday, whilst the most recent EFL supporters survey revealed:

- 91% of female supporters stated nothing can beat the live football matchday experience.
- 87% of female respondents said they enjoy the atmosphere in the stadium amongst fellow fans.
- 84% said football is an important part of family life.
- 71% suggested going to watch football is a big part of their usual weekly routine.
- 61% said that football is more than about just winning but about feeling a sense of belonging to their town / city's football club.

With an ever-growing female fanbase, throughout the weekend, Clubs will be profiling female supporters and some of the initiatives that are being delivered to attract more women and girls to EFL matches.

When Bristol Rovers fans Lucy Ford and Caz May began speaking to other female football fans, they quickly realised the abuse they had experienced both online and in person, for simply being women who like football, was a much more widespread issue.

It is why the duo, along with 10 other female football supporters, decided to launch the Her Game Too campaign.

The message they are promoting is a simple one: to foster a positive, inclusive environment in football, while raising awareness and educating others about the abuse women who follow football regularly face.

Already they have seen their slogan plastered over advertising boarding at grounds on match day, inside programmes, and on the front of Bristol Rovers women's new away kit.

Lucy Ford

Lucy Ford

Her Game Too co-founder Lucy Ford is a long-time Bristol Rovers fan.

The Her Game Too survey of almost 400 female fans and returned some shocking stories. Many reported incidents of having their knowledge of football and reasons for watching the sport questioned, while many others told of being harassed and intimidated.

"That's really what it's about, it's about inspiring the next generation of female football fans, female footballers," Ford said. "And just saying that, you know, you should be allowed to be a female football fan, a female footballer, without being told that you shouldn't because you're a female."

TOM BLOXHAM

TOWN LOANEE TOM BLOXHAM HAS ADMITTED THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPERIENCE MEN'S FOOTBALL BY JOINING HARROGATE TOWN IS ONE WHICH CAUGHT HIM BY SURPRISE.

THE ENGLAND & IRELAND YOUTH INTERNATIONAL JOINED THE CLUB ON DEADLINE DAY. HOWEVER, HE HOPES TO USE THE EXPERIENCE AS A CATALYST FOR FURTHER IMPROVEMENT WITH THE FORMER PREMIER LEAGUE CHAMPIONS.

INTERVIEW BY OLIVIA CONROY

Town's number 27 said: "I wasn't really focused on going out on loan. I joined Blackburn six months ago and I was still adapting to my new club. The interest came about really late on in the window, when I heard of the offer I was really keen to come.

"It's a chance for me to play men's football and prove the quality I have. We have high aspirations here, I want to do all I can to contribute to that and prove my worth to Blackburn.

"It's an exciting time, I want to give my all, get some goals and some assists while trying to help the team achieve their wider aims."

After signing for Spurs at the age of six, Bloxham drew several similarities when weighing up his immediate future in January.

"I was playing with Stevenage U8s when I was six and we played up against Spurs, I did really well in that game and after it there was a bit of a race to sign me.

"That was really exciting as there was a few scouts watching that day, I ended up signing for Spurs and thankfully I managed to spend a good part of my career there.

"I was just desperate to enjoy my football, the club made me feel wanted and throughout my time there I really enjoyed representing the football club.

"Looking back, my time with Spurs really helped me to build up my technical ability. I've always had the challenge of being one of the smallest players on the pitch but having that ability has helped me to overcome that challenge."

However, the 18-year-old believes a strong self confidence and support network helped him to continue on his journey of progression.

"I have always had confidence in my ability, from a young age I have always backed myself to do well. Obviously, there has been times where I have had to wait for my opportunity but I think that experience has definitely helped me to improve.

"I was living at home and spending time with my family. That is something which was important for me coming through, I had a close circle and a great support network roundabout me.

"When I was younger, I was one of the best players on the pitch most weeks. If I am not, I am asking myself why that is the case. I aspire to be a great player and to prove it every time I cross that white line."

Having been supported by his family over the course of a 10 year affiliation with Spurs, the winger recalls fond memories of making the step into full-time football.

"I was offered a scholarship pretty early on, I was buzzing to be honest at the time. I didn't really think too much about the greater meaning, I was more focused on the fact I was enjoying my football and had the chance to play full-time.

"That was the first big landmark for my career really. That was a proud moment to share with my family because I was another step closer to becoming a professional footballer." With the opportunity to represent both England or Ireland, Bloxham believes the exposure to international football has challenged him to continue in his development.

"With England, there are so many good players round about you and with Ireland you have a bit more space to potentially be the main man.

"I was offered the opportunity to captain England at U15 level and that was a proud moment. Since then, I have gone on to represent at U16s and U17s level.

"However, as I got older, Ireland had my back. They wanted to play me more and offered me the chance to play U19s there so I would say I am with them for now.

“Every player wants to play international football, it exposes you to play against the very best which can help you grow so hopefully I have the chance to play more international football as I get older.”

Despite spending over 10 years with the London club, Bloxham made the difficult decision to leave Spurs in the summer. With first-team football the aim, the winger discussed his reasons for making the move to Lancashire.

“I was at Spurs for a very long time, when I was leaving it was a little bit emotional. I had spent over 10 years there but I had to do what was best for me.

“There was a lot of club’s showing interest in me. However, I was keen to ensure that I joined another club where I felt wanted.

“I feel like I am well appreciated at Blackburn. I joined the club on trial and everyone at the club was great with me so it just felt right.

“I had to earn my opportunity to impress the manager, I scored against Barnsley in pre-season and felt like I was in the managers plans. I got on the bench a few times but had to wait for the game against Harrogate to get on.

“That night I was buzzing to be honest, I was playing with excitement and managed to score so it was a good day. My family were at the game too so it felt good to share that moment with them.”

TOWN'S CLUB HISTORIAN PHIL HARRISON LOOKS BACK AT A MEMORABLE GAME IN OUR HISTORY

In 2004/05 Town embarked on a new adventure in Nationwide (Conference) North league after leaving the Northern Premier League.

Town's season opened at Wetherby Road with a game against the previous season's third-placed outfit, Barrow and one of the title favourite's which resulted in a 2-1 win for Town in front of 771 with Colin Hunter scoring both goals. Hunter went on to score in each of the next four games.

After drawing with last terms champions Hucknall, Town broke new ground as they travelled south to play Moor Green, a first ever Birmingham based opponent in a league game on Saturday 21 August 2004 which ended in a first defeat after three games but it was also an historic occasion in so much as it was the first time Town had travelled so far south for a league game. It was exciting times ahead especially with five further former Dr Martens league teams from around the Birmingham area to play - Hinckley United, Nuneaton Borough, Redditch United, Stafford Rangers and Worcester City plus Kettering Town from the Ryman league.

Of the Moor Green game it was a 2-1 defeat with Colin Hunter scoring for Town and Phil Trainer and Darren Middleton for Moor Green in front of a crowd of only 228.

Town: Pettinger, Shepherd, Barnard, Sturdy, Wood, R. Dunning, Fox, Atkins, Morris, Turley, C. Hunter
Subs: Warburton, Wright

Two arson attacks at the Moorlands in January 2005 when the main stand and clubhouse were gutted left the club homeless and they became tenants of Solihull Borough at Damson Park. In the summer of 2007 the two teams joined forces with Solihull Borough, calling themselves Solihull Moors mainly because of lack of crowds. They played at the latter's ground of Damson Park and are currently in the play-off places in the National League.

Top: Match action at Solihull Moors on Saturday 21 August 2004 as Town's James Turley in white shirt takes on a Solihull defender in first ever 'Midlands' game.

ELLA WILLIAMS

FOLLOWING INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY YESTERDAY, WE SAT DOWN WITH HARROGATE TOWN WOMEN'S TEAM CAPTAIN ELLA WILLIAMS, WHO HAS A LOT OF OPTIMISM FOR THE REST OF THE SEASON.

INTERVIEW BY OLIVIA CONROY

"It's been a tough two seasons and things are really turning around. We really have been unlucky to lose in some recent games, but I think the most important thing for us has been keeping that consistency at training and keeping the good energy."

Ella's interest in playing football began at eight years old, when a local community club visited her older sister's school. She began playing with older girls and then with boys her own age, until her dad set up a girls' team for her age group. She played for them throughout her youth career and for a local women's team as she got older. After moving to Leeds for university, she joined the team there.

After graduating, Williams began to look for a new team, but was drawn to Town from the get-go: "I had the intention of trialling with a few clubs but to be honest, but Harrogate was the first I went to and it just seemed like a nice place, it's worked out really well and I love the club."

Growing up, Ella credits her dad as inspiration: "He's been pushing for the women's game and advocating in that space. His enthusiasm for the game inspired me a lot."

"I'm a big Portsmouth fan, so I used to love Kanu and all of those players back in the day, so that inspired me as well."

Despite enjoying the sport, the women's captain found her shyness prevented her from making the most of opportunities.

"I wasn't super shy, but the fact that playing football wasn't the most normal thing made me have a lot less confidence with it, maybe I'd be better than I am now, I don't know! I was always quite scared of throwing myself into things like playing at lunchtime and never really did that because I felt like it was a bit unusual or weird. Looking back, I think that's ridiculous, but how do you tell a ten-year-old girl that?"

Luckily, Ella had a great group of friends who also played and continue to do so.

One factor contributing to this lack of confidence, Ella says, is finding kit: "You're playing a game where things as simple as shirts and shorts are labelled as 'Youth Boys', when really there's no difference. I think that's such a deterrent for a lot of girls – entering a sport which doesn't feel like it's made for you."

Examples of this include light-coloured shorts and ill-fitting boots, which contribute to women getting more ACL injuries: "There's definitely so much more research to come in that space.

"There's still a lot of people who are bitter about the growth of the women's game. I think that's such a shame because football is the best thing, in my opinion, ever! So why shouldn't more people get to enjoy it?"

"It's a good thing as long as the infrastructure keeps up with the amount of girls who want to play... We've just got to create that representation in leadership roles – so coaching, officiating – getting women into those roles for young girls and young boys to look up to is so important and probably the slowest area of growth. That might be slightly limiting and an area to work on."

"Representation is so important." Having important figures represented, especially in media, helps to normalise the presence of all characteristics in the game. If you see it, you can be it and I think that is really important for young people."

"In terms of the women's game, I think it's growing exponentially which is just amazing. Girls in ten years' time are going to have opportunities that I wouldn't have even dreamt of as an eight year old."

Reflecting on last season, Ella highlighted the strategy most important for success: "It was a lot about seeing the season out and sticking together. As a group we really came together... We have got such a good energy within the team, and I think a lot of that starts at training. Making sure it's fun for people, making them want to come back has been important."

The 24-year-old says that "Our young players [between 17 to 21] are some of the most integral players in the squad. It's really important to keep the morale high for them and ensure the longevity of the team... they bring so much value in every way."

On leading the team, Ella has a clear role model: "I absolutely love Sarina Wiegman. I just think she's amazing. Her style, her temperament, the energy she gives off, everything about her is just brilliant and she is so respected because of all those things. I am in no way saying I am trying to embody Sarina Wiegman because that is a difficult feat, but I think there is a lot about her leadership that I really admire and if I was to take something from someone and try to emulate that, then it would definitely be her."

Other than "Be Yourself" and "Keep Playing", Ella can offer some sound advice for those starting out in sport: "Take every opportunity that comes. That's on the pitch and off the pitch. There's such a small network of people in the sport sector and football off the pitch that building your network is so, so important. Doors can open wherever.

"That's one of the best things about football – the people you meet and the connections you make. I would say to any young player, just keep playing and take advantage of all the opportunities because you get so much from it"

Ella admitted that the song She Wolf has recently become a pre-match anthem for the team. "Certain players of the squad are the instigators of that! She Wolf is the Harrogate Town Women tradition of the season for sure! The team is very aware that we've got a number of games coming up that are really important.

"It's looking up and they're such a wonderful group of girls. It's such a great team feeling and that's what we will get through the rest of the season with and hopefully get those results locked in that we need.

"Something has really switched in the squad... where this team has come together to really fight through to the end of the season. I think the conviction is there from the players to win those games that we know we need to. Everyone is very focused on the same thing. The optimism is there."

Finn O'Boyle was brilliantly denied

Town U18s came away from St George's Park with a good point after a well-earned 0-0 draw with high-flying Burton Albion.

Town started brightly and went close to the opener in the ninth minute when Lewis Smalley headed over from Ollie Nicholson's corner.

Burton responded with a chance of their own just three minutes later as Kiyan Baker-McKay latched onto Connor Pace's ball over the top and lobbed the ball over the onrushing Alex Mooney in the Town goal, only to see his effort land narrowly wide. The Brewers had the ball in the net in the 19th minute when Will Ademiluyi tucked home following neat build-up play, but the goal was ruled out for offside.

Harrogate went close again in the 32nd minute when good play down the right wing set up Jack McClarin, but he dragged his shot wide from inside the area. The best chance of the half came in the 43rd minute, when Burton 'keeper Spencer Tootell produced a superb save to deny Finn O'Boyle at his near post.

The second half began with Burton in the ascendancy and they came close to the breakthrough in the 52nd minute, when Newall forced a strong save from Mooney down to his left hand side and the Town stopper was again on hand to deny the Brewers again in the 58th minute, as he held on to Ronny Wakelin's long range effort.

Emmanuel Ilesanmi then had two huge chances to put his side ahead, first in the 70th minute when he curled into the gloves of Tootell from just inside the area. Then, just a minute later Ilesanmi missed a golden opportunity, turning the ball wide from around four yards out after Josh Brodella had cut the ball back from the byline.

In the 74th minute, Burton were forced into a change, with Tommy Miller called upon to replace the injured Tootell, and Miller produced a fine stop in stoppage time to prevent Harrogate snatching all three points, as he turned Brodella's effort aside, before Josh Taroni made a goal-saving block on the rebound.

Town: Mooney, Nicholson, Moorby, Smalley, Taylor, Brodella, Lee (c), Ilesanmi, O'Boyle, McClarin, Pow

Subs not used: Etherington, Wilson, Bray, Samuels, Robinson.

GIRLS U11 PREMIER LEAGUE PRIMARY STARS CUP SUCCESS

A team from Pannal Primary School recently represented the Community and Club at our Regional Competition, hosted by Huddersfield Town Foundation.

The girls were fantastic throughout the day, with a real team effort seeing them top the group, winning all six games, scoring 18 goals and conceding none!

After a very close semi-final, they were unfortunately beaten 1-0 by Sheffield United in a thrilling end to end game.

We are so proud of how the players conducted themselves throughout the day and their positivity and effort during the games!

FLO WINS DIVERSITY COMPETITION!

Florence, a pupil from Coppice Valley Primary School, recently won our 'What does diversity mean to you' competition, which saw the Town players warm up in her t-shirt design before their home fixture against Walsall.

After hearing about the competition at an assembly delivered in her school by Community Coach, Tom, Flo got to work drawing and colouring her design.

The Competition was judged by a panel which included first team player Rod McDonald, PE & School Sport Manager, Rob Mason & Fan Engagement Manager, Hamilton Mattock. When she arrived on match day Rod was there to meet and greet Flo with her winning design before the players headed out to warm up wearing them!!

INTRODUCING CRAWLEY TOWN

IN THE DUGOUT SCOTT LINDSEY

Lindsey was appointed as the Reds new Manager in January 2023, having spent the first part of the 2022/23 season at Swindon Town.

Scott enjoyed a successful playing career which lasted well over a decade and included spells with Gillingham, Dover and Welling United. His first coaching role came at Folkestone Invicta as a player/coach, but he left the club in January 2009 to become a Technical Development Coach at Gillingham. Following the appointment of Chris Sutton as manager of Lincoln City at the end of September 2009, Lindsey was appointed first-team coach at the club and would later serve as caretaker manager. Lindsey began his first spell with Swindon in 2014, where he joined as U18's Manager. He then left his role in 2016 to take the Assistant Manager role at Forest Green Rovers but returned to the County Ground in 2021 to join former Manager Ben Garner as the Robins' Assistant Manager.

MEET SOME KEY MEN FOR THE RED DEVILS

Matt West/Shutterstock

COREY ADDAI

Signing for the Reds in July 2022, the 26-year-old goalkeeper began his career at the Arsenal youth academy before linking up with the Coventry U18s in 2014. Whilst with the Sky Blues, Addai enjoyed loan spells with Mickleover and Telford United. After leaving Coventry in 2020, Addai joined Barnsley, where he was loaned out once more, this time to Chesterfield in the National League. Corey made the move to Denmark to second division side Esbjerg fB for the 2021/22 season.

Jon Tuttle/Shutterstock

WILL WRIGHT

Signing from Gillingham over the Summer, the centre-back's career began in the youth setup at Luton Town before making the move to Hitchin Town in 2017. The 26-year-old joined Colchester United in 2018, and after a loan spell at Dagenham & Redbridge joined them permanently before the 2019/20 season. After over 130 appearances and captaining the Daggers he signed for Gillingham in Summer 2022 and made just under 50 appearances for the Gills.

Andrew Fosker/Shutterstock

DANILO ORSI

Former Town striker Orsi signed for the Red Devils from Grimsby Town over the Summer. Orsi's pro career began in the United States at Eastern Florida State College, where he studied Business Management. Whilst studying, Orsi impressed for his College side, where he scored 27 goals in 32 appearances during his two seasons. Orsi also represented Californian-based side Chivas and Fort Lauderdale in Florida before he returned to the UK.

On his return to England in 2018, he had spells with East Thurrock United, Hungerford Town and Hampton & Richmond Borough before joining Maidenhead United in 2020. Orsi scored 21 goals in 41 appearances in all competitions for Maidenhead. In 2021, after significant interest from EFL clubs, Orsi signed for Harrogate Town and made a total of 14 appearances in all competitions, scoring six goals before joining Boreham Wood on loan in January 2022.

He joined Grimsby Town at the start of the 2022/23 season and went on to make 32 appearances for the Mariners.

This season he is top scorer for the Crawley with an impressive 15 goals to his name so far this campaign.

Jon Tuttle/Shutterstock

NICK TSAROULLA

Signed in October 2020, following his release from Brentford B in the summer of 2020, the 24-year-old full back came through the Tottenham youth ranks including the U18 and U23 squads before being released in the summer of 2018 and was quickly snapped up by the Brentford B setup. On joining the Reds, Tsaroulla was quickly a fan favourite and immediately made 21 appearances in his first season at The Broadfield Stadium. Since then, he has racked up over 100 appearances for the Reds.

Richard Lee/Shutterstock

LIAM KELLY

Signing last June, the former Feyenoord midfielder was most recently at Rochdale, who he joined in August 2021 and made over 70 appearances for. The 26-year-old started his career at Reading aged eight and progressed through the ranks before signing pro in 2013. He went on to make almost 100 appearances for the Royals before reuniting with manager Jaap Stam in Holland. Whilst at Feyenoord, he had two loan stints at Oxford United as well as being capped by Ireland U19s and U21s.
